Being Stubborn is NOT a Plan: Family Decision Making Regarding End-of-Life Dilemmas

Friday, November 8, 2019 2:30-4:30 p.m.

Kauffman Conference Center - 4801 Rockhill Road, Kansas City, MO 64110

We are pleased to present Helen Emmott, RN, nurse ethicist
Author of "Without Regrets, A Nurse's Advice about Aging and Dying"

Ms. Emmott will educate about end-of-life choices, communication, decision making and planning. Thinking about times of illness and frailty seems incomprehensible, but planning for times when we are unable to speak for ourselves is doable. We will practice end-of-life choices and dilemmas while exploring a typical family case.

FREE -1.5 Ethics Contact hours for Social Workers
-1.5 Contact Hours for Nurses

Helen Emmott, RN, nurse ethicist has served as a program consultant and Interim Program Director for the Center for Practical Bioethics managing projects in advance care planning, cultural diversity and nursing leadership. Ms. Emmott completed her MA in 2007 in Bioethics and Health Policy through Loyola of Chicago's Neiswanger Institute. She has been adjunct faculty in bioethics at the University of Missouri-Kansas City and at Rockhurst University. She has recently published a revision of her book, "Without Regrets" and her first children's book, "MiMi and the Magic Potion".
